POLITICAL DEFINITIONS

The game called politics is fascinating and a ure way to liven up any conversation. In the ast week the word liberal has been much bandied bout in something close to reverence. The word s never defined however. Nor is the "evil" word onservative. This year the Socialist party will un no candidate. According to Norman Thomas, the eason for this is that the Liberals in the major arties have adopted all the Socialist's beliefs nd aims and have made them part of their own latforms. A liberal might be defined in this ay. He believes that giant government should etermine what is best for the citizen, and is best equipped to determine how to spend the individual pay than the individual himself. Since the Sovie government, though called Communist is actually Socialist, this makes Nikita Khrushchev the number one liberal in the world today.

Conservation of wildlife, water and natural resources will be defended and championed by almost every thinking American citizen interested in the future of his country. In this context the meaning of the word conservative is good. Why should the political conservative be a dirty word? Becau he believes in the conservation of liberty, that the individual is a wiser judge in the spending of the bulk of his own pay than the government. That the citizen should determine, within reason, what is best for himself and his family without oppression and control from a titanic government. A conservative believes that there IS a limit to the money and control which can be given up by the citizen to the government, if he would remain a free man in a free economy. In other words, a conservative would conserve our right to self determination in a free country.

He is a dirty bird in the liberal dictionary. Nikita Khrushchev hates him.

CRESCENT BEACH IMPROVEMENT ASSOCIATION NEWS

We welcome to the beach once again Mrs. Albert B. Lyon of New York City, who has been coming up for several years. Mrs. Lyon's husband passed away a few weeks ago, and we wish to assure her of our sympathy in her bereavement.

Also staying are Mr. and Mrs. Bevan of Winter Park, Florida, and Miss Carolyn Johnson of Greenwood Lake, New York, who is paying us her first visit. She likes it so well that she says she'll bring her parents next year! Another booster for Crescent Beach.

Also arrived and welcome are Mr. and Mrs. Willis Brown of Bethesda, Maryland, who are long time summer residents. They plan to make Crescent Beach a semi-permanent residence in the future.

The Junior Group sponsored a cake sale last Sunday. Profits were $24.55 which all helps to defray the summer's expenses which are quite high this year.

Following the sale, the meeting was held at which time new officers were elected. They are: Thomas Hoye, president; Lynere Empey, vice-president; Sue Porter, secre-

SUNDAY SCHOOL COMMITTEE APPOINTED

Members of the North Rochester Congregational Church appointed a committee for the establishing of Sunday School classes in the Fall. To serve on the committee are the Rev. Herbert L. Wilbur, Mrs. Arthur A. Reed, Mrs. Albert E. Reed, Jr. and Mrs. Albert E. Hellyer.

A suggestion was made at the church meeting that an adult Sunday School class to start in the Fall be held from 10 to 10:30 A.M. with Sunday worship service to be held from 10:40 to 11:30 A.M.

In other business it was voted to close the church the last four Sundays in July with services resuming in August.

Present officers of the North Rochester Congregational Church are Mrs. Alberta Gerrish, clerk; Mrs. Arthur A. Reed, treasurer; Mrs. Roger Wood, auditor; Mrs. Hellyer, sunshine and Mrs. Abraham Jackson, organist.

PENNY SALE AT K OF C HALL

This year in place of the annual bazaar, the St. Anthony's Church of Mattapoisett will sponsor a parish supper followed by a penny sale in the K of C Hall, Fairhaven Road, Mattapoisett. Lobster will be the main feature of the supper which will be served at 6:45 P.M., the date, August 15th.

Three special prizes will be awarded as a climax to the penny sale. They are a 1961 19" Zenith portable television set, first prize; a Hoffman trans-solar personal portable radio, second prize and a motor outdoor grill, third prize.
